

PROBLEM SOLVING•

By Stu Shaffer

1. Define the problem.
2. Name two possible solutions to the problem.
3. Examine each solution.
What would happen if you used your first solution?
What would happen if you used your second solution?
4. Which solution would you pick and why?
5. How would you make sure the problem did not come up again?