

FAILING.

“Failing” is an acronym
For life and learning - both:

It’s “Finding An Important Lesson
Inviting Needed Growth.”

So set out in life my friend
To see what you can learn,

For the timid soul so seldom gets
What the bolder soul doth earn,

By fearing NOT the “slings and arrows”
Of fortune and outrage,

And bravely stepping out in life
To turn another page.

By boldly going where few have gone
With head held high and straight,

To face their fears and learn new things
while the TIMID sit and wait.

Wait not! Risk wisely! Learn much!
