

TALK IS CHEAP

If I gave you a nickel for all the “some day I’ll”s,
Or a quarter for those “Yes, I will, in just a little while”s

You’d be the richest one on Earth, I know you know just how.
But far richer would you be if you would simply “Do it now!”

For the beauty of this lesson or the strength of this small thought
Is “success is found in doing” and lost “in deeds done not.”

So move yourself past talking into a brighter day.
Do something; if it turns out wrong, at least you’re on your way.

To all those things worth having and all those things worthwhile,
Doing is the pathway, and the best - is doing with a smile.

The “Original” Mike Smith

© 1986, 2002 DifferenceMakers, Ltd.
www.DifferenceMakers.com

